

Breast and Ovarian Cancer Research Free Public Information Evening

Wednesday 13 April 2016

Centre for Cancer Research and Cell Biology, Queen's University Belfast (QUB) at Belfast City Hospital Campus, 7pm-9pm

Welcome and Brief Introduction to the NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum

Margaret Grayson, Chairperson, NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum

An Overview of Breast Radiotherapy Clinical Trials in Northern Ireland

Dr Gerry Hanna, Senior Lecturer QUB, Consultant Clinical Oncologist, Belfast HSC Trust

Breast Cancer Research and a Changing Treatment Pathway

Mr Stuart McIntosh, Clinical Senior Lecturer, QUB, Consultant Breast Surgeon, Belfast HSC Trust, Deputy Clinical Lead NI Cancer Trials Network

Surgical Advances in Ovarian Cancer & Research Update on Screening and Early detection

Dr Stephen Dobbs, Consultant Oncological Gynaecologist, Belfast HSC Trust

A Guide to Inherited Breast and Ovarian Cancer – Research and Services

Dr Lisa Jeffers, Genetic Nurse Counsellor, Northern Ireland Regional Genetics Service

Information and Support - BRCA Genetic Mutations and Hereditary Breast and Ovarian Cancer in NI

Hazel Carson, BRCA Link NI

Tea / Coffee and Information Stands

New Research into early Detection Biomarkers in Ovarian Cancer

Dr Laura Feeney, Medical Oncology Specialist Registrar, NI Cancer Centre

Breast and Ovarian Cancer Research – Northern Ireland's Impact in Innovation for Patient Benefit

Professor Richard Kennedy, McClay Professor of Medical Oncology, QUB, Consultant Oncologist, Belfast HSC Trust, Almac Medical Director

Ovarian Cancer Clinical Trials - A Patient Perspective

Avril Law

Question Time

9.00 Close